

Icebreakers & Other Fun Ideas

| icebreakers |

Remember...the best icebreaker is transparency!

Questions to open discussions:

- What is one unique thing about you that is unique?
- Who has influenced your growth as a Christian disciple? What did they do?
- How did you end up at this small group meeting?
- What is your favorite childhood memory?
- Where did you live when you were growing up?
- What is your earliest recollection of God?
- What did you want to be when you grew up?
- Where is the farthest place you have ever traveled?
- When is a time during the week you can relax?
- What do you most like about your life's calling?
- What is one thing that gives you satisfaction?
- What is your greatest joy in faith?
- If you could change one thing about your life, what would it be and why?
- How would you like to see your closest relationship develop in the next year?
- What area of your faith would you like to work on in the next few years?

| other fun ideas |

It is important to involve your group in activities outside the regular small group setting. One of the purposes of a small group is to develop relationships and a sense of community among its members. Therefore, in order to get beyond certain perceived or actual barriers between relationships you must provide occasional social activities that are out of the “norm” for your group. The following is a list of ideas to use when planning a special activity for your group:

Serve Together
BBQ
Christmas Party
Scavenger Hunt
Horseback Riding

Pool Party
Bowling
Progressive Dinner
Birthday Parties
New Year's Eve Party

Board Games
Hayride/Campfire
Outdoor Games
Concerts
Picnics/Camping

